Form 2-2 PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT PLAN

Position:  NUMBER OF CPE REQUIRED  Government Auditing Standards require that each auditor complete at least 80 hours of continuing professional education (CPE) every 2 years, including a minimum of 20 CPE in each year. At least 24 CPE for the 2-year period must be government-related. Please indicate the total number of CPE needed and your tentative plan for obtaining those hours below. Include any CPE requirements to maintain your professional certifications. Note that the Office's biennial reporting period may be different from your professional certifications.  The Office's current biennial reporting period is January 1, 2007 through December 31, 2007:  Number of CPE needed January 1, 2007 through December 31, 2007:  Number of CPE needed January 1, 2008 through December 31, 2008:  Explanation (if necessary):  PROPOSED TRAINING PLAN  In general, the Office will try to cover the cost of your registration to attend local meetings of professional organizations including the Institute of Internal Auditors (monthly; $30 per meeting), Information Systems Audit and Control Association (quarterly; $25-30 per meeting), Association of Government Accountants (monthly; $25 per meeting), American Society for Public Administration ($20 per meeting), and the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners (binomthly; $35 per meeting).  The Office expects to be able to cover registration costs for the Association of Local Government Auditors conference in May 2008. You may use your professional development account ($1,000 per fiscal year) to cover conference travel, meals, and lodging.  The Office will pay for you to take approved self-study courses on City time from the USDA Audit Training Institute or other providers (reasonably priced). Under special circumstances, the Office way cover the expense of other specific training programs. You may use your professional development account to cover the employee cost of other conferences and training programs. The Citywide training catalog is also an excellent resource for government an	Name:
Government Auditing Standards require that each auditor complete at least 80 hours of continuing professional education (CPE) every 2 years, including a minimum of 20 CPE in each year. At least 24 CPE for the 2-year period must be government-related. Please indicate the total number of CPE needed and your tentative plan for obtaining those hours below. Include any CPE requirements to maintain your professional certifications. Note that the Office's biennial reporting period may be different from your professional certifications.  The Office's current biennial reporting period is January 1, 2007 through December 31, 2007:  The Office's current biennial reporting period is January 1, 2007 through December 31, 2007:  Number of CPE needed January 1, 2008 through December 31, 2008:  Explanation (if necessary):  PROPOSED TRAINING PLAN  In general, the Office will try to cover the cost of your registration to attend local meetings of professional organizations including the Institute of Internal Auditors (monthly; $30 per meeting). Information Systems Audit and Control Association (quarterly; $25-30 per meeting). Association of Government Accountants (monthly; $25 per meeting), American Society for Public Administration ($20 per meeting), and the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners (bimonthly; $35 per meeting).  The Office explects to be able to cover registration costs for the Association of Local Government Auditors conference in May 2008. You may use your professional development account ($1,000 per fiscal year) to cover conference travel, meals, and lodging.  The Office will pay for you to take approved self-study courses on City time from the USDA Audit Training Institute or other providers (reasonably priced). Under special circumstances, the Office may cover the expense of other specific training programs. You may use your professional development account to cover the employee cost of other conferences and training programs. The Citywide training catcologies is also an excellent resource for government and	Position:
Number of CPE needed January 1, 2007 through December 31, 2007:  Number of CPE needed January 1, 2008 through December 31, 2008:  Explanation (if necessary):  PROPOSED TRAINING PLAN  In general, the Office will try to cover the cost of your registration to attend local meetings of professional organizations including the Institute of Internal Auditors (monthly; $30 per meeting), Information Systems Audit and Control Association (quarterly; $25-30 per meeting), Association of Government Accountants (monthly; $25 per meeting), American Society for Public Administration ($20 per meeting), and the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners (bimonthly; $35 per meeting).  The Office expects to be able to cover registration costs for the Association of Local Government Auditors conference in May 2008. You may use your professional development account ($1,000 per fiscal year) to cover conference travel, meals, and lodging.  The Office will pay for you to take approved self-study courses on City time from the USDA Audit Training Institute or other providers (reasonably priced). Under special circumstances, the Office may cover the expense of other specific training programs. You may use your professional development account to cover the employee cost of other conferences and training programs. The Citywide training catalog is also an excellent resource for government and computer training (no charge).  This is a tentative plan and may be non-specific. You are still expected to submit and receive approval on Training Request Forms for each instance of training. Training requests in excess of 80 hours per biennial period should be discussed with your supervisor and the City Auditor. All reimbursement requests depend on successful completion of coursework.  Please indicate how you plan to obtain your CPE in 2008 (may be general):  COURSE/TYPE OF MEETING  CPE DEPT COST EMPLOYEE COST  COURSE/TYPE OF MEETING  CPE DEPT COST EMPLOYEE COST	Government Auditing Standards require that each auditor complete at least 80 hours of continuing professional education (CPE) every 2 years, including a minimum of 20 CPE in each year. At least 24 CPE for the 2-year period must be government-related. Please indicate the total number of CPE needed and your tentative plan for obtaining those hours below. Include any CPE requirements to maintain your professional certifications. Note that the Office's biennial reporting period may be
In general, the Office will try to cover the cost of your registration to attend local meetings of professional organizations including the Institute of Internal Auditors (monthly; $30 per meeting), Information Systems Audit and Control Association (quarterly; $25-30 per meeting), Association of Government Accountants (monthly; $25 per meeting), American Society for Public Administration ($20 per meeting), and the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners (bimonthly; $35 per meeting).  The Office expects to be able to cover registration costs for the Association of Local Government Auditors conference in May 2008. You may use your professional development account ($1,000 per fiscal year) to cover conference travel, meals, and lodging.  The Office will pay for you to take approved self-study courses on City time from the USDA Audit Training Institute or other providers (reasonably priced). Under special circumstances, the Office may cover the expense of other specific training programs. You may use your professional development account to cover the employee cost of other conferences and training programs. The Citywide training catalog is also an excellent resource for government and computer training (no charge).  This is a tentative plan and may be non-specific. You are still expected to submit and receive approval on Training Request Forms for each instance of training. Training requests in excess of 80 hours per biennial period should be discussed with your supervisor and the City Auditor. All reimbursement requests depend on successful completion of coursework.  Please indicate how you plan to obtain your CPE in 2008 (may be general):  COURSE/TYPE OF MEETING  CPE DEPT COST EMPLOYEE COST  CPE DEPT COST EMPLOYEE COST  COURSE/TYPE OF MEETING	2008: Number of CPE needed January 1, 2007 through December 31, 2007:
	professional organizations including the Institute of Internal Auditors (monthly; $30 per meeting), Information Systems Audit and Control Association (quarterly; $25-30 per meeting), Association of Government Accountants (monthly; $25 per meeting), American Society for Public Administration ($20 per meeting), and the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners (bimonthly; $35 per meeting).  The Office expects to be able to cover registration costs for the Association of Local Government Auditors conference in May 2008. You may use your professional development account ($1,000 per fiscal year) to cover conference travel, meals, and lodging.  The Office will pay for you to take approved self-study courses on City time from the USDA Audit Training Institute or other providers (reasonably priced). Under special circumstances, the Office may cover the expense of other specific training programs. You may use your professional development account to cover the employee cost of other conferences and training programs. The Citywide training catalog is also an excellent resource for government and computer training (no charge).  This is a tentative plan and may be non-specific. You are still expected to submit and receive approval on Training Request Forms for each instance of training. Training requests in excess of 80 hours per biennial period should be discussed with your supervisor and the City Auditor. All reimbursement requests depend on successful completion of coursework.  Please indicate how you plan to obtain your CPE in 2008 (may be general):  COURSE/TYPE OF MEETING  CPE DEPT COST EMPLOYEE COST  COURSE/TYPE OF MEETING  CPE DEPT COST EMPLOYEE COST

7
8
10
11
12
13
14
To'	TALS
The Office will a certifications that prestige and/or r	ice will cover the cost also cover the cost (in the employer eputation of the Office). The Office has an experience of the office has a constant of the office has a cons	ncluding memberships) of mair yee's ability to perform require ce. [Note this is a change from	ob-related professional organization. Itaining approved professional d services or otherwise adds to the our previous policy of paying for the National Association of Local
Please indicate 2008 :	the organizations a	and certifications you plan to	participate in or renew during Type of
Organ	IZATION		DEPT COST EMPLOYEE COST
1
2.
3
4
5
	TOTALS
COMMENTS AN	ND/OR SUGGESTION	NS:
Please sign and	l return to your sup	ervisor by Friday, April 25,	2008. Thanks!
Auditor:			Date:
City Auditor:			Date: